

NEW BILL MAKES
SEYMOUR A UNIT

Under Amended Option Measure Saloons Can Open Here After April Unless Prevented by Election.

FEATURES OF LAW ENACTED

Provides That No Saloon Shall be Started in Territory Voted "Dry" Until Expiration of Two Years.

Since the passage of the amendment to the county local option bill with the units of incorporated cities, townships and territory in the townships outside the incorporated cities there has been much speculation as to what effect the new law will have upon this county which was voted "dry" in April 1909 shortly after the county option measure became a law. As the result of the election remains for a period of two years this county will remain "dry" for that time, as the bill provides that no county having voted the saloons out can become "wet" until the expiration of the two years.

Under the new amendment, which, in fact, changes the entire character of the county option measure, Seymour will be the unit instead of the county and the citizens of this place must determine whether or not liquor shall be sold within the corporate limits. The territory outside the city will also be a unit and the residents of the townships living outside the corporate limits of Seymour must determine the question for that part of the township.

At this time no active steps have been taken towards calling an election for the city. Should it be decided, however, to call an election, the initiative must be taken by the persons opposed to the saloons.

In case they desire to resort to an election they will be placed under the necessity of obtaining a petition to the county commissioners, asking for such an election, which petition will have to be signed by twenty per cent. of the qualified voters of the city.

The county commissioners upon the receipt of such a petition, at their next regular session, shall order a special election, the same to take place in not less than twenty or more than thirty days thereafter. Ten days' notice of such election is required. The contest would go forward under the rules provided by law for general elections.

In ascertaining the number of signers required to make the petition for the election effective, the commissioners would be required to take as a basis the aggregate number of votes cast for all candidates for mayor in the city election of 1909. Twenty per cent. of this number on the petition would entitle it to be considered and would insure the ordering of an election. In the city election in 1909 there were a total of 1545 votes cast for mayor. Twenty per cent. of this number would be 309 which would be the number of signers the petition for an election must have.

No person shall be entitled to sign the petition except he be a bona fide legal voter of the city. The petition shall be filed with the county auditor and after it is filed, no voter shall be permitted to sign his name thereto or to withdraw his name therefrom.

The election commissioners for the special election shall consist of the county auditor and two resident freeholders of the city, one known to be in favor of prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors and one known to be opposed to such prohibition. The election commissioners will perform in this election the duties performed by election commissioners in general elections—prepare and distribute the ballots, canvass the returns and certify the result.

The board of commissioners, when possible, shall appoint on the election board in each precinct one judge and one clerk known to favor prohibiting the sale of liquors in the city and one judge and one clerk known to oppose such prohibition. The inspectors for general elections will be the inspectors in this special election.

Nothing in the amendment affects, repeals or amends either the Nicholson law or the Moore remonstrance law, nor any law or ordinance which prohibits throughout any ward or residence district the sale of intoxicating liquors.

Another bill was presented Thursday afternoon by Senator Proctor, which if passed will limit the number of saloons to one for each 1,000 inhabitants. Senator Fleming introduced a similar bill several days ago but it provides that there shall be one saloon for each 500 persons. If the bill presented by Proctor should be enacted into a law there could be but six saloons in Seymour according to the government census which gives this city a population of 6,305. The author of the bill says that he is in favor of a $1,000 license fee but has not placed that provision in the bill, but will permit the senate to add it if that body should deem it advisable. Both the bills introduced by Senators Proctor and Fleming have a provision giving a vested property right in a liquor permit. By this means the number of saloons in territory now "wet" will not be reduced unless the proprietor fails to renew his permit or the license is revoked for failure to comply with the law.

LODGE MEMBERS
FILE COMPLAINT

Proceeding Instituted Against K. of P. Supreme Lodge for an Accounting of Interest Here.

SUIT FILED IN FEDERAL COURT

Petitioners Pray That Receiver Take Possession of All Money and Properties of Fourth Class.

A proceeding which is of much interest to members of the Knights of Pythias lodge in this city who carry insurance policies with the insurance department of that order, has been instituted by several members residing in Louisiana, against the supreme lodge asking that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the trust fund belonging to the fourth class of the endowment rank. It is also asked that the receiver have the right to demand possession of all moneys and properties belonging to the reserve or trust fund of the fourth class, and "to demand from the officers of the said supreme lodge an accounting of funds withdrawn by them from said fourth class and not accounted for to said trust fund, as well as to demand the restitution of funds belonging to said fourth class, withheld by the supreme lodge, or any of the officers thereof."

It is further asked that on final hearing it shall be adjusted that the reserve or trust fund referred to belongs exclusively to the fourth class, and to its members in good standing, January 1, 1911, and that out of the trust fund of the fourth class there shall be a ratable distribution among the members of the fourth class who were in good standing, January 1, 1911.

It is explained in the complaint that there is also a first class in the insurance department, distinct from the fourth class. It is in relation to the fourth class, however, that the complaint is made. It is asserted that the reserve trust fund for the fourth class is inadequate to discharge the obligations of the fourth class. It is further asserted that this fund, of the fourth class, is in danger of being seized by the supreme lodge and diverted from its legitimate purpose of protecting the members of the fourth class, or is in danger of being diverted by the supreme lodge in the interests of the fifth class. It is said that this trust fund is the property of the members of the fourth class, and that the complainants are about to bring suits, in various parts of the United States, to recover portions of the fund, and that if such recoveries are made, they will still further deplete the fund.

It is charged that since 1906 the board of control, in furthering the interests of the fifth class, has, mainly by its efforts, reduced the membership of the fourth class from 81,819 to 10,832. It is further asserted that the fourth class carry insurance aggregating $20,667,500, and that the endowment or reserve fund belonging to the fourth class, October 31, 1910, was $615,568.66, an amount wholly inadequate to protect the members belonging to the fourth class, and to meet the obligations thereof by the supreme lodge of the Knights of the Knights of Pythias.

Figures are also given to show a decline in the receipts in the fourth class. It is said that the mortality receipts for the fourth class for the first six months of 1910 amounted to $289,519.06, and that the disbursements for that period amounted to $439,356, making an excess of disbursements over receipts of $149,845.94, notwithstanding three special assessments.

It is further stated that auditors were called in, but that because of the "disgraceful condition" of the records the auditors were unable to say how much money had been lost, or how much had been abstracted from the fund.

CONSIDERS SALARY BILLS.

Committee Takes Up Measures of Trustees and Assessors.

The house committee on county and township business, which is considering the township trustees and township assessors' bill for increasing salaries and prescribing regulations for the respective offices, expects to hold at least one more meeting before making a report. The trustees have consented to sharp decreases in the salaries asked, and Representative Poor, who introduced the measure, says he believes a satisfactory agreement will be reached and the bill will be reported in with amendments which will prove satisfactory. The salary provision is on a scale based on township population.

A meeting of the committee was held last night, when both the trustees and the assessors' work and salaries under the present law were discussed. John W. McCordle, a member of the state board of tax commissioners, appeared in behalf of the assessors, and urged that the pay of the assessors and assistants be increased.

Trustees attending the meeting said their measure was drawn to meet objections to the present law, as shown by reports prepared by the state board of accounts. The public accounting law was criticised on the score that it does not now require that accused officials shall be given an opportunity to explain alleged discrepancies before the reports of examinations of their affairs are made public.

MORE ASSISTANCE
FOR INSTITUTES

Townships Must Pay 25 cents For Each Square Mile For Farmers' Institutes.

BILL PASSED BY THE SENATE

As There Are About 490 Square Miles In County, The Institute Would Receive a Total of $122.

Farmers in Jackson county who are in favor of the county giving financial assistance to farmers' institutes are much interested in the bill of Senator Will R. Wood which passed the senate Thursday providing that such institutes shall receive from the township twenty-five cents for each square mile in the township. For some time a number of the farmers of the county who feel that the institutes are a benefit to the county have been urging that a law of this character be enacted.

At the present time the expense of the county institutes are met by contributions by the farmers and business men of the county, and while the officers of the institute often times felt a reluctance in asking financial aid from the citizens, they declared it was necessary to do so in order to obtain sufficient money to defray the expenses incident to the sessions held throughout the county. Should this bill which is presented be passed by the house an additional sum could be secured each year and the call upon the citizens would not be so heavy.

According to the terms of the new measure the institute would be entitled to twenty-five cents from each township for each square mile in the township. There are approximately 490 square miles in the county, and if twenty-five cents should be paid for each square mile the institute would receive $122.50 from all the townships in Jackson county. There are about 43 square miles in Jackson township and at the same rate the institute would receive $10.75.

Those who are in favor of the bill declare that the townships should feel an interest in the institutes as they result in much good for the farmers and bring about much advancement and progress in agriculture.

DIED.

BROWN.—Mrs. John M. Brown died at 7:15 o'clock this morning at her home at the corner of Ewing and Third streets after a short illness of gastritis. She was taken ill Tuesday morning and her condition was regarded as serious at that time. The deceased had many friends in this city where she was known because of her christian character and many deeds of kindness and benevolence.

Mary J. Adams, the daughter of Stephen W. and Polly A. Adams, was born near Seymour April 15, 1843, making her age sixty-seven years, nine months and twelve days. On December 4, 1862 she was married to John M. Brown and to this union were born four children, three living. They are: Mrs. W. F. Bush, Charles A., of Seymour, and Ed C. Brown, of Indianapolis. She is also survived by her husband, six grandchildren and one great grandchild. Besides these she leaves three brothers, James E. Adams, Washington, D. C., Frank P. Adams, Seymour, and William Adams of Cincinnati, and one sister, Mrs. Laura Balsley, of Indianapolis.

The deceased lived in Seymour all of her life and it is here that her model character will long be remembered. When quite young she became a member of the First M. E. church, and had always lived a conscientious christian life, never failing to perform what deeds of good she could.

The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, conducted by Dr. C. E. Asbury, pastor of the First M. E. church. Burial at Riverview cemetery.

WINDOM GOSS

Windom Goss, son of Ex-County Sheriff Josephus Goss, who is in the U. S. navy, had a close call from being one of the victims who were killed by the bursting of a steam pipe on the U. S. battleship Delaware on January 17, in which eight men were killed instantly. The accident occurred about 9 o'clock that morning while the vessel was on its way from Guantanamo, Cuba, having been designated to transport the body of Senor Cruz, late Chilean minister to the United States, back to Chile.

The men who were killed were in the boiler room, and a letter from Mr. Goss to his father stated that he had left the boiler room only a few minutes before the explosion occurred. One of the victims, Charles H. Harp, whose home is in Kentucky, was one of his closest friends.

By ROBERTUS LOVE.

It was Jesus of Nazareth who said in an age when prophets were many, "A prophet is not without honor save in his own country and in his own house." In all reverence it may be averred that the reservation contained in the last clause of this saying is not applicable to Mark Twain. Here was a prophet with honor not only throughout the world, but to a far more intensified degree in his own country and in his own house. Even in the house where he lived in boyhood and in the town and state which may be called "his own country" Mark Twain was not without honor during his lifetime, and now that he has passed from earth as a living presence his memory is to be honored and perpetuated in tangible form.

The state of Missouri and the city of Hannibal, which lies upon the Missouri bank of the mighty Mississippi, are joining hands just now to do honor to their prophet, who once good naturedly resented the characterization of "the first Missourian" on the ground that he was "not so old as all that." Even without such tangible evidences of the former residence of Mark Twain in Hannibal's midst, the city where he spent his boyhood, which is the scene of many episodes in his most famous books and which he loved as a father loves a child, will be always a Mecca for the pilgrims who elect to worship at the shrine of the creator of Tom Sawyer, Injun Jo, Huckleberry Finn and other fictional characters who are almost as much alive as is little Tommy Tucker around the corner from your home or the boy who delivers your beefsteak at the back door.

State May Build Monument.

Frank Sosey, member of the Missouri legislature from Marion county, in which Mark Twain was born, has introduced a bill to appropriate $10,000 same Mississippi river and others abutting other American streams. But to the Hannibal resident there is only one Lovers' Leap, and that is the ragged, jagged, rocky, but precipitous and picturesque bluff that rises sharp and sheer 265 feet above the level of the river, with railroad trains thundering and factory machines whirling in the narrow strip below on the very bank of the stream.

This Hannibal Lovers' Leap is distinct from all the others. Each has its legend of the pretty Indian maiden and her dusky lover who hurried themselves from the edge of the bluff because pater or mater or both forbade the bans. Hannibal's leap is different because it is associated with Mark Twain's early life and with some of his most popular works.

Shrunk With Age.

The present writer well remembers, the very last time Mark Twain visited his home, how the humorist lay in bed at his hotel in his white nightgown, smoking a black cigar and looking from his southern window through the matchless glory of a June morning down across the gorge of Bear creek to a certain bluff that jutted up from the river's edge. He gazed and gazed and was silent. Finally he said, slowly and with perfect pathos:

"I'm looking for Lovers' Leap, and I reckon that must be it; but, oh, how much smaller it is than it was when I was a boy."

Then he smoked and smoked and was silent. I stole softly out of his room. That was the only thing I ever stole in Hannibal, but I felt that I was justified.

And so it is this Lovers' Leap, the one that was beloved by Mark Twain through more than threescore years of his wandering life, which is to be the arch and acme of the new Mark Twain park. This world man, who with her 22,642 inhabitants—10,000 more than she had in 1900—wants the cave to be named for Mark Twain, so we might just as well yield to the inevitable.

As a matter of fact, Hannibal is becoming more and more Mark Twained as the years pass. The shanty house where lived the original of Huckleberry Finn was burned down shortly after the June of 1902, when Mark Twain made his final pilgrimage there to. But there remain still several claimants to the honor—if it be that—of being the original of Huck. Hannibal also is full of the original Tom Sawyer, though Mark Twain himself once guardedly admitted that he was Tom. There is also, or was a few years ago, one "original" of Injun Jo, who charged me 50 cents for the privilege of photographing him with his hat on and a dollar with his hat off. He made a handsome income for many years as the original of Injun Jo. It was not Mark Twain, but another great American humorist, who remarked that the American people like to be humbugged.

Mark Twain's Narrow Escape.

On that last visit to Hannibal Mark Twain was nearly killed by the people—with kindness. Living on one square meal a day to ward off his ancient enemy, dyspepsia, he was invited to about twenty breakfasts, luncheons and dinners daily during the week he spent there. He found it necessary, in order to preserve his life a few years longer, to appoint several gastronomical proxies. One of his understudies in this line, I can assure the good housewives of Hannibal, was fonder for ten days afterward and really never yet has quite regained the joyful appetite he possessed in earlier youth.

Hannibal, in truth, is the home of good cooks and generous hospitality. Judge Sydney J. Roy, secretary and literary light of the Commercial club, has written: "It is a city of 'homes.' People 'live' rather than reside or board in this river metropolis." Commercially growing by leaps and bounds, proud of her shoe factories and her cement works and railroad shops, Hannibal's champion leap always will be Lovers' Leap, and her bounds will be set only by the fame of her most famous citizen, who moved in as a boy and went back as an old man after he had made himself world noted under an assumed name. It was something worth while to hear those old fellows calling him Sam, and I verily believe that until that last pathetic visit "home" he had forgotten that his real name was Clemens.

KAISER SPOILED HIS TRADE.

Wanted Only Auto Horn In Existence Like Sample.

An orchestral instrument maker of Markneukirchen, in Saxony, has discovered that the patronage of the German emperor is not an unmixed blessing. Three years ago he invented an automobile horn which sounded four notes. The first one he finished in pure silver and presented to the kaiser.

The kaiser was so delighted with the new instrument that he gave immediate orders forbidding anybody else to have one like it. The inventor found this compliment too much of a business drawback to enjoy for more than a very brief spell.

For the last three years he has been doing his utmost to get permission to manufacture the instrument for the general public. He has just succeeded in securing a special decree from the federal council of the empire whereby motor horns of four notes may be employed by motorists when touring in the country, but it continues to constitute a misdemeanor to use such a horn in towns or cities, where it will remain the exclusive privilege of the kaiser.

The king of Saxony recently outbid the emperor by ordering the Markneukirchen manufacturer to construct for him a horn with six notes. Princess August Wilhelm, one of the kaiser's daughters-in-law, has a motor horn which performs a melodious theme.

for the erection of a monument to the humorist and philosopher in Hannibal. There was also on foot until recently a movement to have the state purchase the boyhood home of Mark Twain on Hill street, Hannibal, but the local committee having that matter in charge has decided that, inasmuch as the house is not a property of any considerable real estate value, the people of Hannibal themselves should take care of that and preserve it, letting the state's share be the memorial provided for in Mr. Sosey's bill.

Just what form this memorial will take is as yet a matter to be considered, though the sentiment seems to favor a monument, with a statue of the white haired author, to be placed either in the small city park in Hannibal or in the new Mark Twain park which is to be created by the city.

The Commercial club of Hannibal has just acquired by purchase eighteen acres of land, which includes the famous Lovers' Leap and about half a mile of the picturesque bluffs rising above the Mississippi just south of the city. This tract is to be deeded to the city and to be held perpetually for park purposes. Now, there are lovers' leaps and lovers' leaps. Personally I know of several along this had sailed every sea and steamboated every river of consequence, said that in his opinion there is no finer river view in the world than that which is to be enjoyed from the top of Lovers' Leap or from Inspiration point, a similar height just north of Hannibal. While no doubt the Hannibal people have their own preference as to the location of the Mark Twain monument, may not one suggest that it be placed on the summit of Lovers' Leap, facing the river he knew and loved so well and whose fame he has made immortal in his book which may be called the biography of the Mississippi?

Down to Mark Twain's Cave.

You pass beneath Lovers' Leap when you drive or trudge down the yellow, dusty road to Mark Twain's cave. People used to call it Tom Sawyer's cave, because it was in that remarkable freak of nature, a narrow passage a mile long underground, with "pockets" where one easily might get lost, that Tom Sawyer and his tiny sweetheart were imprisoned for days, while all of Hannibal, at that time only a matter of a thousand population or so, hunted high and low for them. Hannibal of today, however,

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JANUARY 29, 1911

Jehoshaphat's Good Reign in Judah. 2 Chron. 17:1-3

GOLDEN TEXT:—Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.—Matt. 6:33.

This week's lesson is much more attractive than that of last week, inasmuch as we are now introduced to another good king of Judah, Jehoshaphat by name, who succeeded his father Asa and reigned twenty-five years. Last week it was chiefly the devil and his wickedness; now it is chiefly Jehoshaphat and his ways. We say "chiefly" because there were some things in the life of Jehoshaphat which were not ordered by the Lord, though they were doubtless overruled by Him for good. I refer to his joining affinity with Ahab and with Ahaziah, kings of Israel, who both did very wickedly (xviii, 1; xx, 35). God wants a people wholly set apart for Himself and in no way entangled by or mixed up with unbelievers. Our instructions are plainly written in II Cor. vi, 14-18, the only passage in the New Testament outside of Revelation where we find the name "Almighty," the significance of which we will not know in our experience unless we are wholly separated unto Him.

Many beautiful things are said of Jehoshaphat in our lesson, such as "The Lord was with him; he sought to the Lord God of his father; his heart was lifted up in the ways of the Lord;" also some grand things that he said are found in the record of him, such as "Believe in the Lord your God, so shall ye be established; believe His prophets, so shall ye prosper" (xx, 20); also his charge to the Levites and priests in chapter xix, 9-11, and his prayer in chapter xx, 6-12.

It was most commendable that he should send throughout all the cities of Judah those who would teach out of the book of the law of the Lord (verse 9). So we read that the Lord established the kingdom in his hand, and not only all Judah, but also the Philistines and the Arabians, brought him presents, and he had riches and honor in abundance and waxed great exceedingly (verses 5, 10-12), a fulfillment of the words, "Them that honor me I will honor" (I Sam. ii, 30).

It would have been a better record if it could have been written that this good king never in any way turned aside from doing right in the sight of the Lord, but only one ever lived on earth who knew no sin and did no sin. Ever since Adam sinned every mere man has proved himself to be a sinner. How wonderful it is and what glorious good news that He who never sinned, having been made sin for us, offers to blot out all our sins and put His righteousness to our account before God (II Cor. v, 21).

When Jehoshaphat went with Ahab to battle and almost lost his life thereby, when he in his extremity cried out, the Lord helped him, and God moved them to depart from him (xviii, 29-31). It is only as the Lord, or Jehovah, who by grace becomes our righteousness, that God, or Elohim, the Creator, can do anything for such as we are. It was after Jehoshaphat had been rebuked for his sin in the matter of Ahab with the memorable and far-reaching words, "Shouldst thou help the ungodly and love them that hate the Lord," that he said to the judges whom he appointed, "Take heed what ye do, for ye judge not for man, but for the Lord" (chapter xix, 2, 6, 7). When we see in our day those who profess to honor Jesus as God joining hands in so called good works with those who deny that Jesus is God it looks very much like a union of Christ and antichrist, an impossibility, and therefore all who unite in any way with the enemies of Christ are for the time being denying Him.

The record of Jehoshaphat's victory over the people of Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir in chapter xx is in many respects the most remarkable part of his story. His confession of utter helplessness and lack of wisdom, with his reliance upon God, as set forth in his prayer (verses 6-12), is very beautiful. The answer to his prayer through Jahaziel (verses 14-17) was most encouraging with its repeated "Be not afraid nor dismayed," and its other words, so like those through Moses, when the Egyptians pursued Israel. Compare Ex. xiv, 13, 14, "If we are true children of God the battle is always His, and it is ours to stand still and see the salvation of the Lord." On this occasion the people went forth singing and praising the Lord, and not only were the enemies smitten, but they began to destroy themselves. It is always safe to believe God and to praise God, to bless the Lord at all times.

So God gave Jehoshaphat rest round about, and His realm was quiet, and all the kingdoms feared God when they saw how He fought for Israel (xx, 29, 30). If we were to the Lord what He would like us to be He would fill us with His rest and peace and joy, and something of the life of Jesus would be manifest in us to His glory.

In Jehoshaphat's prayer Abraham is mentioned as the friend of God, and only in two other places is He thus mentioned. In Isa. xli, 8; Jas. ii, 23. But in John xv, 14, Jesus said, "Ye are my friends; if ye do whatsoever I command you."

LABOR UNIONS PRESSING BILL.

They Would Legalize Black List in Indiana.

AGAINST "UNFAIR" EMPLOYERS

If a Measure Prepared by the Head of the State Federation of Labor Becomes a Law, the Offense for Which Gompers Was Convicted Would Not Be a Crime in Indiana—Option Bill Pushed in House.

Indianapolis, Jan. 26.—By a bill which Representative Spencer of Marion county has introduced in the house, picketing and the publication of "black lists" by labor unions are made lawful. Edgar A. Perkins, president of the Indiana Federation of Labor, drew up the measure, and all the labor unions of the state are behind it. Should the Spencer bill become a law the publication of information concerning "unfair" employers, such as caused the conviction of Samuel Gompers and other labor leaders in Washington, would be legal in Indiana. It provides that such publication would only be subject to law of slander and libel. Funds raised by trades unions or other organizations mentioned in the bill are exempted from judgments entered on account of the illegal acts of any of the members.

Among the bills passed in the senate yesterday was one providing for the appointment of police matrons in cities of 20,000, and another for the regulation of the transactions of foreign corporations in Indiana, providing that such corporations shall exercise no power in this state not possessed by other corporations in the state, or powers not possessed by the corporations in their home state. Twenty-two new bills were introduced in the senate, as well as a resolution providing for the celebration of the 100th anniversary of Indiana's admission to the Union by the erection of a state educational building.

Seventeen new bills were introduced in the house, including one to do away with labor contracts at the state reformatory and to compel state, county and township corporations to buy goods from the reformatory. Several of the state board of health bills were among those passed. A bill requiring that physicians, nurses and midwives shall give proper care to the eyes of infants in order to prevent blindness was passed, as was that providing for a fund in the state treasury to care for indigent persons afflicted with hydrophobia. A third bill from the state board to regulate the sale of dangerous drugs also was passed.

The house lost time in getting down to business on the Proctor senate bill providing for an amendment of the county option law passed by the senate the day before. Speaker Venable immediately handed the bill down for first reading, and it was referred to the house committee on public morals, which reported it back in time for a second reading late in the afternoon, and it is expected to come up on its passage today. There will be some slight division on the vote, but its passage is assured by practically a full vote of the majority. The judiciary committee filed a report indefinitely postponing all Indianapolis Bar association bills designed to simplify legal practice.

Representative Keegan's child labor bill has divided the house committee on labor, and three reports were ready for submission. It was decided to withhold all and to call a Democratic caucus on the measure. From the way the committee was lined up, it did not appear the factions could be united. Masselink, Keegan, A. Johnson and Hammond favor the passage of the bill; Benz, Ault and Moran recommend that the bill be indefinitely postponed, and Ruple and Eward favor the bill, provided it be amended so as to lower the age limit, increase the number of hours of work for the day and the week and permit the employment of children at night.

McKenna's bill providing for the registering of lobbyists was killed in the house, but not until after the representative who had introduced the measure by request had made a fight, declaring that such legislation had been recommended by Governor Marshall, and that consequently he believed that the bill should pass.

McKenna's bill had been sent to the committee on rights and privileges. After McKenna had addressed the house, Askren, chairman of the committee, said the committee had unanimously decided to recommend that the bill be indefinitely postponed. Their reason, he said, was that the bill was impractical, and that they did not believe a bill that would be impractical in operation should be placed on the statute books. By viva voce vote the recommendation of the committee was adopted. In addressing the house McKenna said that other states had such laws and that Indiana should have one. He said it had been recommended by Governor Marshall, although not in so many words. He said the provisions of the bill—requiring lobbyists to register their names, occupations, legislation desired and for whom they are working—would enable the house to prevent dishonesty and corruption.

COMPLAINT AGAINST ELEVEN RAILROADS

Michigan, Indiana and Ohio Demand New Classification.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The state railroad commissions of Michigan, Indiana and Ohio have filed with the interstate commerce commission a joint complaint against eleven railroads operating in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Illinois, against the system of classification of freight used by the carriers. It is alleged that by reason of the variance in the weight, bulk and value of commodities in the sixth class of freight, a new class or classes should be established to cover certain commodities now in that class. The complaint asks the commission to abolish commodity rates and require the carriers to establish a new class or classes, the rates of which shall not be more than 10 per cent of the amount charged per 100 pounds for freight carried and charged for as first class. The carriers named as defendants are the Pennsylvania lines, the New York Central, the Lake Shore, the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis, the Baltimore & Ohio, the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, the Erie railroad, the Pere Marquette railroad, and the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton road.

She has never returned and has not been found, although detectives have been searching ever since. Miss Arnold is a niece of Justice Peckham of the United States supreme court, her father being a brother of Mrs. Peckham.

Vermillion County Election Scandal to Be Bared to the Bottom.

Danville, Ill., Jan. 26.—The Vermillion county grand jury has issued subpoenas for Circuit Judge E. R. E. Kimbrough, Circuit Judge Morton Thompson, Mayor Platt and every county, district and city official who has been elected to office within the last three years.

This action is taken to mean that all efforts to stop the election scandal inquiry have failed, and that instead of abandoning the investigation the inquisitors will go to the bottom of every rumor of vote buying.

Pleasantly Remembered.

NEW SENATORS COURT INQUIRY

West Virginians Do Not Want a Cloud On Titles.

THE CHARGES WERE RENEWED

When It Came to the Election of Chilton and Watson as United States Senators From West Virginia, Bland Bolted the Caucus and Repeated Charge of Bribery, but the Result of the Vote Was Not Changed.

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 26.—Until charges of bribery could be investigated, Delegate Moore, Republican, offered a resolution asking for the postponement of the election of senators for fifteen days. The resolution also stated it was rumored that Delegate Shock had been given $1,000 and was promised $1,500 more, and that Shock had shown the money he had received to William G. Bennett and John W. Davis. He asked immediate consideration, but this was voted down. A motion was then made to compel all of the members present to vote, whereupon the Republicans left the hall in a body.

With only Democrats present, Senator Bland bolted the caucus nominations by attacking Watson's Democracy, and then read a letter purporting to contain Shock's statement in which he admitted having received the bribe. This letter explicitly charged that the money had been received and exhibited. He thereupon nominated Thomas E. Hodges for the long term, while Delegate Hubbard named William R. Thompson. Amid great excitement the vote was then taken and resulted: Chilton, 71; Hodges, 3; Thompson, 1; J. W. Davis, 1. Chilton was then declared elected for the long term.

Several Democrats claimed the bribery charges had no basis. When Watson was nominated for the short term, his name being presented by Delegate Woods, Delegate Hubbard nominated Louis Bennett. This vote resulted: Watson, 70; Bennett, 5; Davis, 2.

Immediately after the announcement that they had been elected, Messrs. Chilton and Watson appeared and made addresses, each declaring in turn that they had not paid any money to secure their nominations, and they courted the fullest investigation. They did not want any cloud upon their titles, and if it could not be shown beyond a reasonable doubt that the charges were unfounded, they would decline to serve.

The compromise proposition has been abandoned, the arbitrators having failed to reach an agreement, and the Republicans now say they will absent themselves during the session.

FUNERAL FRIDAY

Body of David Graham Phillips Will Be Held in Receiving Vault.

New York, Jan. 26.—Funeral services for David Graham Phillips will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in St. George's church, Bishop Greer officiating. A male choir of sixteen voices will sing. The pallbearers will be Senator Beveridge, Joseph H. Sears, Robert W. Chambers, Arthur W. Little, George Horace Lorimer, Otto Carmichael, John O'Hara Cosgrove and Samuel G. Blythe. It is expected that the coffin will be left for a time in the receiving vault of the Marble cemetery until Mrs. Carolyn Frevert, Mr. Phillips's sister, decides upon a permanent burial place.

Goldsborough's body was sent to Washington. John Farr, a cousin, said that neither he nor any of the Goldsborough family had any light on the real reason for the shooting. He said that the family was of course deeply grieved. None of them had ever felt any animosity toward Phillips.

Mrs. Frevert said that her brother had not known Goldsborough. "If he had known him," she said, "I am certain I would have known it."

Policeman Kills Negro.

Indianapolis, Jan. 26.—A negro believed to have been Frank Brown, was shot and killed last night by a policeman in front of 618 North Capitol avenue. The officer had responded to a call stating that burglars were trying to get into the house at that number. The negro sprang from a shadow and started to run. Not heeding the officer's call to halt, the latter shot, the bullet penetrating the negro's heart.

ROADS IN BAD CONDITION.

Travelers Have Difficulty When Using County Highways.

The public roads throughout the county are in a deplorable condition as a result of the recent thaw and heavy rains. On many of the highways there are many inches of mud and travelers declare that they have difficulty in riding over them. Many of the gravel roads are worn and not well drained and the water remains in the hollows and ruts for days.

There have been many complaints made that the present condition of the highways is due largely to the hauling of heavy loads over the roads when the ground is soft. The tires of the wagons cut deep ruts in roads and when they dry will be rough and uneven. It is the duty of the road supervisor to see that teamsters take proper care of the roads and heavy hauling be avoided when the roads are thawing.

The rural mail carriers are also having their share of trouble and several of them report that even with the light wagons and buggies it is often impossible to pass over certain parts of their territory.

SECREC Y IN PAROLES.

Federal Prisoners Will Not be Advertised When Given Release.

Should it transpire that John R. Walsh is paroled from the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas, no announcement will be made of the fact, and it will not become known to the public until he arrives home.

Men who have won their paroles from Federal prisons will hereafter step back into the world to begin life anew, unadvertised and without the limelight of publicity. Attorney General Wickersham and Robert V. La Follette, chairman of the Parole Board, have decided that publicity in such cases helps to defeat the object of the parole law. This decision was brought about largely by the protest of a convict whose application for parole was under consideration when he saw published the names of ten men who had been paroled from Leavenworth Penitentiary. He withdrew his application, saying he preferred prison to being released with so much publicity.

In the future the paroled men will receive their liberty quietly.

NEW RECORD.

Not a Single Fire Alarm Has Been Sounded This Year.

Although the first month of this year has almost passed into history there has not been a single fire alarm sounded in 1911, which establishes a new record for the Seymour fire department. The public, however, has not filed any complaint and would be perfectly satisfied if the record could be maintained throughout the year.

Usually at this time of the year there are many alarms sent in, and almost every week the department makes several runs. While there has been no actual fire fighting the firemen are ready for any calls and have the equipment in first class condition.

Pending Pension Bill.

The pension bill pending before congress and which it is believed will be passed does not apply to Spanish or Philippine war soldiers but only to Civil and Mexican war veterans. The following is an extract from the bill:

"Any person who served ninety days or more in the militia or naval service of the United States during the late civil war, or sixty days in the war with Mexico, and who has been honorably discharged therefrom, and who has reached the age of sixty-two years or over (shall, upon making proof of such facts according to such rules and regulations as the secretary of the Interior may provide, be placed upon the pension as follows: Those 62 years of age, $15; 65 years, $20; 70 years, $25; 75 years or over, $36; such pension to commence from the filing of the application after the passage of this act."

Askren Bill Meets Opposition From Educators.

The House Committee on Education held a public hearing last evening in the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Charles A. Great-house on the Askren bill, providing for the repeal of the teachers' qualification law, and the teachers' disability and retirement bill, introduced by Representative Cook, chairman of the committee. The hearing was continued until a later date and no report will be made on either bill.

Former State Superintendent F. L. Jones, asserted that the passage of the Askren bill would be a backward step. He said the qualifications required of teachers had been increased throughout the country and that the present law was passed after teachers' wages had been increased. Mr. Jones protested against the passage of the bill as a father and as a taxpayer.

That it is unfair to place a well trained and qualified teacher in competition with an untrained and unqualified teacher, was the argument of Superintendent Fitzgibbon, of Columbus. He said the poorer townships would suffer the most if the law were repealed, because they would assume that the cheapest teacher is the most available and the most desirable all other things considered.

Travel Party.

A very delightful shower was given by Miss Gladys Kye Thursday afternoon for Miss Mable Shields. The guests were the members of the Sewing Club and they were entertained in a very clever manner with a progressive travel game with Panama as the final destination. After delicious refreshments were served the hostess handed Miss Shields a traveling bag filled with 'personal' gifts which each guest brought. The favors were tiny suit cases filled with candy. Mrs. Martin Phelan, of Chicago, and Mrs. Hugh Brown, of Minneapolis, were guests from out of town.

SAYS ROADS OVERCHARGED.

Cement Company's Receiver Sues Railway Corporations for $4,000.

E. W. Shirk, receiver for the United States Cement Company, has brought suit against the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern and Southern Indiana roads for $4,000, alleged overcharges on coal from Linton to Bedford.

The roads refused to put into effect the rate ordered by the State Railroad Commission. The case was carried to the courts and a decision favorable to the cement company was rendered.

The property of the company was sold Thursday by order of the court to C. E. Voris of Crawfordsville, representing a syndicate of the minority stockholders, for $181,000.

The first money, after paying the expenses of the receivership and the preferred claims of $115,000, will go toward paying the bonds of the Midland Cement Company.

Backache Means Dying Kidneys

A Remarkable Treatment That Saves the Kidneys. How You May Cure Yourself Quickly and Thoroughly.

With the progress of science comes one remarkable treatment for kidney diseases. It has been so thoroughly tested and its results have proven so revolutionary that a well-known firm in Michigan has undertaken its distribution into every part of the country.

Those who suffer from kidney trouble and the diseases resulting from it will be pleased to know that every package of this treatment is thoroughly guaranteed. This should assure at last a positive cure to every sufferer.

Every man and woman should know that backache is usually a well-defined symptom of advancing kidney disease which may end fatally unless treated in time; that rheumatism and bladder trouble are caused from nothing more nor less than kidneys that do not filter the poison from the blood; that dropsy, Bright's disease, diabetes and bladder-stones are caused by bad kidneys.

Once they are made to work properly, these diseases should quickly disappear.

This is done by the new treatment, Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills.

We urge everyone who has pain in the small of the back, profuse or scanty urination, pains in the bladder, cloudy or foul urine, not to fail to get a package today of Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills, and drop all other kidney treatments. Senator Stevenson, of Washington, writes from Olympia: "There is no question about the efficacy of Dr. Derby's Pure Kidney Pills in curing kidney and bladder trouble. I know whereof I speak."

Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills are now sold at all drug stores—60 pills—10 days' treatment—25 cents, or direct from Derby Medicine Co., Eaton Rapids, Mich. If you would like to try them first, ask your druggist for a free sample package. Then buy a package; you will not regret it.

WILL LOOK INTO CASE OF CANNON

Contest May Face Uncle Joe in Next House.

DID HE "INFLUENCE" VOTES?

Charges That Are Freely Being Made in and Around Danville Have Been Taken Up by the Speaker's Recent Opponent, Who, if He Finds Them Substantiated, Says He Will Take the Case to Congress.

Danville, Ill., Jan. 27.—Speaker Cannon's Democratic opponent for Congress last fall, J. H. Cundiff, says that he is making a careful investigation of the charges that Cannon's friends spent thousands of dollars in this county to elect him, and if he finds they are true he will institute a contest the moment the new congress meets in March. It is likely that there will be a grand jury investigation of vote-selling throughout Cannon's district. A politician declared that if State's Attorney Lewman would delve into the Cannon election, something rich would be developed, but unless he did the grand jury might just as well adjourn.

Summons was issued against the First National bank to bring all of its books into court for grand jury inspection. The object of this is to learn how much money Mayor Platt and Judge Kimbrough drew out on election day. The books were brought in, but before they were examined Judge Kimbrough instructed the jury that it could not go back more than eighteen months, and the jury is in a quandary now what to do.

Judge Kimbrough remarked that he had never spent a dollar for the purpose of buying votes, but the money used on election day was used for the purpose of paying his workers. This created considerable surprise, as the law specifically states that whoever uses money or anything else to bring about his election forfeits his office.

Mayor Platt followed Judge Kimbrough into the grand jury room. He came out five minutes later. It was stated the reason he did not remain longer was that he had declined to answer all questions.

Summonses have been issued for about one hundred more witnesses, including prominent Democrats, who are expected to give information concerning the November election.

RECEIVER DEMANDED

Trouble Has Arisen in Knights of Pythias Endowment Rank.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—A bill of complaint has been filed in the federal court by several members of the insurance department of the Knights of Pythias residing in Louisiana against the supreme lodge K. of P., in which it is asked that an interlocutory receiver be appointed to take charge of the trust fund belonging to the fourth class of the endowment rank. It is also asked that the receiver have the right to demand possession of all money and properties belonging to the reserve or trust fund of the fourth class and "to demand from the officers of the said supreme lodge an accounting of funds withdrawn by them from said fourth class and not accounted for to said trust fund, as well as to demand the restitution of funds belonging to said fourth class withheld by the supreme lodge or any of the officers thereof."

GOT THEIR PAPERS

Lord Decies and Vivien Gould Are Licensed to Marry.

New York, Jan. 27.—John De La Poer Beresford, Lord Decies, peer of Great Britain, and Miss Vivien Gould, daughter of George J. Gould, who is twenty-six years his junior, went to the city hall and obtained a license to be married. The wedding will take place in St. Bartholomew's church on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 7. Miss Gould seemed much embarrassed and filled out the form without uttering a word. His lordship's only comment was "most extraordinary"—a phrase which he has enunciated every few minutes since he landed. When the time came to pay the license fee of $1 he said in a hearty tone: "By Jove, I will, and gladly." He dug into his trousers pocket and produced the money. In answer to the question as to number of previous marriages, his lordship wrote "nil" in the application.

Nobody Interested in Him.

Hammond, Ind., Jan. 27.—The body of a well-dressed man was found in Douglas park. There were two bullet holes in the head. A note found on the body said: "Nobody in this world is interested in me, dead or alive. It is simply a case where I have decided to finish my journey and lie down to rest." The body is at the Hammond morgue awaiting identification.

Rebels Took to Flight.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 27.—The rebels took the town of San Ignacio, south of Juarez, but when the troops of the Fourteenth cavalry went down there from Juarez the rebels fled to the hills and the municipal officials who had been jailed by the rebels, are again in control, guarded by troops.

AMERICA PLANS A GIBRALTAR

Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, Is Site to Be Inspected by Capps.

The United States government has practically abandoned its idea of establishing a powerful naval base in the Philippines, and Chief Naval Constructor Washington L. Capps is going to the far east to pass upon a number of sites tentatively selected.

The navy yard at Cavite, in Manila harbor—the original selection for the American Gibraltar—does not contain enough water for the purpose, and the station at Olongapo, on Subig bay, will be a mere repair station, as it cannot be made impregnable.

But it is essential that the United States should have a strong oriental station, and, while Pearl Harbor is likely to be the selection, it will not mean the abandonment of Olongapo as a plant where the American Pacific fleet can put in for repairs. The report of the constructor will determine the amount of the appropriation which will be asked of congress.

When his work in the Philippines is concluded the chief constructor will return to the United States by way of Europe, taking advantage of the opportunity to make a thorough study of recent developments in naval construction in the great navy yards of the European maritime powers. Incidentally he is also to look into the development of the aeroplane for naval use.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

In a blinding snowstorm at Chalons wireless messages were sent and received on an aeroplane at a distance of fifteen miles.

At a caucus of Republican members of the Montana legislature Thomas H. Carter was made the party nominee for senator. This means his re-election.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler was elected chairman of the board of trustees of the National Education Society at a meeting of the executive committee in New York.

Charlton M. Beattie, United States district attorney at New Orleans, has been removed summarily by Attorney General Wickersham. Talking is said to be the only charge.

The deadlock in the West Virginia senate has ended and the fifteen exiled Republican senators have returned to Charleston from Cincinnati. The Republicans were allowed to have the president of the senate.

There is much uneasiness in Shelbyville, Ky., in consequence of a statement that the negro, James West, who escaped from the mob Jan. 15, when two other negroes were lynched, will be presented before the grand jury by Governor Willson.

MADE ALL FEEL QUITE AT HOME

No Frills At Tennessee Governor's Reception.

IT WAS AN INFORMAL AFFAIR

Many of the Male Guests Wore Jerseys, While Shirtwaists and Street Gowns Prevailed Among the Women. Swallowtail Coats and Social Conventions Were Missing When Former Waif Entered Governor's Mansion.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 26.—A unique reception at the governor's mansion followed the inauguration of Captain B. W. Hooper, the first Republican governor of Tennessee in over thirty years. Carrying out his expressed wishes, guests came in droves dressed in street clothes. Many wore jerseys and the tuxedo and swallow-tail coats were missing from the men, while the women wore shirtwaists in many instances and street gowns in others.

Captain Hooper was raised in an orphan asylum near the spot where he was picked up as a foundling. Many little waifs were among those present at the reception and were not neglected when the good things to eat were handed out.

The governor's four children, respectively eight, six, four and two years of age, with Mrs. Hooper, were prominent in the reception.

POURED OIL ON GIRL AND SET HER ON FIRE

This Is the Charge Against Indiana Young Man.

Bloomington, Ind., Jan. 26.—Lewis Skelton of Smithville is in jail here, having been arrested at Stinesville by Sheriff Browning, charged with attempting to murder his sweetheart, Miss Lillie Lifford, by pouring coal oil on her clothes and then applying a match.

The charge against Skelton was made by the girl's father, Walter Lifford, former marshal of Ellettsville. The girl is at the point of death. Her doctor says there is no chance for her recovery.

The attempt at murder took place at the girl's home. Skelton had been keeping company with the girl for some time, and went from Stinesville to Ellettsville to spend the evening with her. The two were together, when the family was aroused by the cries of Skelton and hurried to the assistance of the girl. Her clothing was a mass of flames, and by the time the fire was extinguished she was seriously burned. She has since been unconscious with the exception of a few minutes. It is alleged that in one of her moments of consciousness she made the charge that Skelton poured oil on her and set her on fire.

ABE RUEF'S CASE IS TO BE TRIED AGAIN

Whole Voluminous Record Is to Be Reopened.

San Francisco, Jan. 24.—Nearly three years after his original indictment and nearly two years after his conviction and sentence to fourteen years in San Quentin for bribery, Abe Ruef, once the all-powerful political boss of Frisco has secured a rehearing of his case from the state supreme court. The effect is practically to place Ruef in the same position he occupied when he appealed two years ago from the sentence of the superior court, and to give him an indefinite extension of the liberty he has enjoyed on bail.

The action of the appellate court on Nov. 23 in denying Ruef's appeal is set aside by the higher court, and the whole voluminous case is re-opened.

Instinct of the Mudfish.

The remarkable instinct of the mudfish to roll himself in a ball of mud when the dry season approaches is a wonderful provision of nature intended solely, it would seem, to prevent the extinction of the species. The most interesting fact about this fish is that it breathes by means of its gills when in its native element and by means of lungs during its voluntary imprisonment in the mud cocoon.

Woman Hangs Herself.

Sterling, Ill., Jan. 26.—Mrs. Mary Selms of Chadwick committed suicide by hanging.

The senate judiciary committee is evenly divided on the merits of the nomination of Judge William H. Hunt of Montana to be judge of the commerce court. By a tie vote the committee, after agreeing to report the other nominations for the commerce court, failed to act on Hunt's nomination.

JOHN P. WHITE

New Head of the United Mine Workers of America.

NEW HEAD OF MINERS WON BY 26,000 VOTES

Iowa Man Puts It All Over Tom Lewis.

Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—President Tom Lewis of Bridgeport, O., will retire April 1 after three years as head of the United Mine Workers of America. Tellers who counted the referendum vote of last fall declared John P. White of Oskaloosa, Ia., elected as president over Lewis by 26,000 votes.

Lewis was given a great ovation when he addressed the convention, following the report. He declared that he would go back to the mines to work. Amid cheers, he went on to say that he would not accept a salaried position from men who own mines, as many retiring officials of labor organizations have done in the past. Said Lewis:

"It has been the aim of my life to see all the miners of the American continent united in one large body, and I trust I may now see a realization of my hopes. I will continue as a member of the organization and hope to attend the next convention as a delegate. I pledge my word to you that because I have been defeated, I will not sell my knowledge of the union to friends or representatives of the class which we are fighting for living wages and hours."

Frank Hayes was re-elected vice president and Edwin Perry was re-elected secretary-treasurer. The vote stood: Lewis, 72,190; White, 98,934. Hayes of Illinois re-elected over E. S. McCullough of Michigan, 91,954 to 73,578; Perry of Iowa re-elected over Green, 91,720 to 70,670.

Lewis was the first to extend congratulations to White. The latter, addressing the convention, expressed his intention of respecting the present policies of the organization and to bring about an end of factionalism. Following the report of the election result, the convention, which has been in session here ten days, got down to real routine business.

TO START OUT AGAIN

Roosevelt Announces Itinerary of Coming Transcontinental Tour.

New York, Jan. 26.—Colonel Roosevelt has announced the itinerary for his southern and western trip, to begin on March 8.

On March 9 he is to talk before the Southern Commercial congress. The next day he will speak at Birmingham, and on March 11 at Jackson, Miss., and New Orleans. The Cattle Raisers convention will see him at San Antonio, Tex., on March 13, and the Rough Riders at Albuquerque, N. M., March 15. He will scrutinize the grand canon in Arizona on March 16 and 17. On the 18th he will motor from Phoenix for seventy-five miles, and in the forenoon will formally open the Roosevelt dam. On his way back to Phoenix the next day he will visit his son Archie, who is in a private school at Mesa. Mrs. Roosevelt and Ethel Roosevelt will be with him on this part of the journey.

Los Angeles will receive the colonel March 21, and he will get to San Francisco on March 23. After ten days in that region he will go to Portland, Ore., stopping at some town in Nevada. Then he will visit Seattle, Spokane and probably Sand Point, Idaho, and a town in Montana, before cutting straight home to Oyster Bay.

Explosion on Gunboat Rumored.

New York, Jan. 26.—Rumors have reached the naval station at Newport that a wireless dispatch had been received somewhere telling of an explosion on the gunboat Wheeling, which sailed from New York for Guantanamo on Tuesday. At the Brooklyn navy yard it was said that nothing at all had been heard. Washington also had no such news.

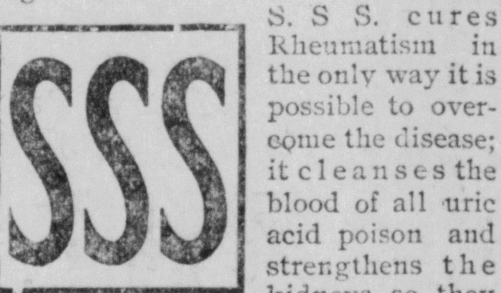

A Notable Pulpit Acquisition.

New York, Jan. 26.—The Rev. John Henry Jowett, D.D., M.A., who has been described as the greatest living preacher in England, has cabled to the elders of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church that he accepts their offer of $12,000 a year and a home, and that he will begin his pastoral duties the latter part of March.

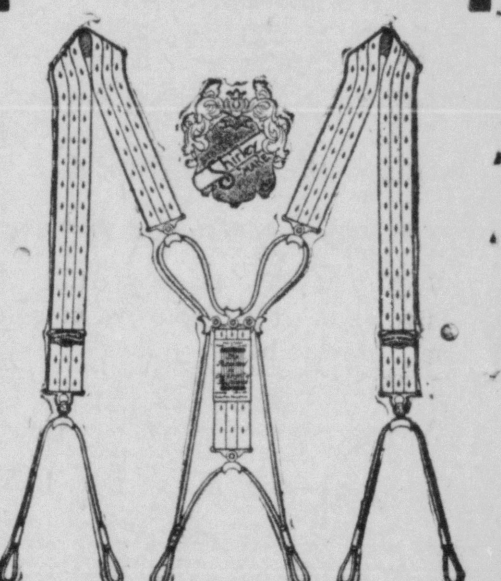

RHEUMATISM WEAK KIDNEYS & THIN BLOOD

Not only is the blood the great nourishing source of our systems, but equally as important is its work of removing the waste of oxidized tissues which have been consumed in force and bodily heat. This waste is filtered out through the kidneys. When, however, the kidneys become weak and unable to perform their regular duties, the waste is allowed to remain in the circulation, soon forming uric acid which destroys the greater portion of nourishing elements of the blood and leave it weak and acid. This imperfect blood deposits into the different muscles and joints the uric impurity with which it is contaminated. Then the pains and aches of Rheumatism commence. The uric formation which uric acid collects in the joints and produces the aches and stiffness which always accompany the disease. Likewise the muscles are coated and lose their elasticity, while the continual irritation to the nerves produces swelling and inflammation of the flesh.

S. S. S. cures Rheumatism in the only way it is possible to overcome the disease; it cleanses the blood of all uric acid poison and strengthens the kidneys so they are enabled to properly filter out the waste. S. S. S. is not only the best of blood purifiers, but a fine tonic. Book on Rheumatism free to all who write. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

The Pictorial Review Edg.

222-224-226 West 39th Street, New York City

The scarf occupies a very important position in the outfit and when the purse can afford it the possession of several is to be desired. A black satin scarf lined with white satin is one of the smartest of them all and has the advantage of suitability for any costume. Worn with a black hat the black and white effect gives distinction to a costume of a different color.

Now that Winter is here, of course fur will play an active part in the trimming of scarfs, and velvet will enter into their make-up. Indeed, quite a rich set may be made of black velvet with a trimming of gray fox like the one in the upper illustration which has the large barrel muff to match, entirely of fur.

The black satin scarf in the drawing, PICTORIAL REVIEW PATTERN No. 373 shows how very simple they are and how one of that kind is worn. Sometimes they are wrapped more closely around the neck, or again carelessly wound around the arms. Satin charmeuse is a material often used, and white satin lining may extend even with the outside edges. One pretty finish, however, is made by having the white lining wide enough to turn over on the outside and form a white hem an inch and a quarter wide. This feature is a detail of finish depending on the taste of the maker.

Three yards long and eighteen inches wide are the measurements of the black satin scarf. Some women who are not very tall prefer theirs two and a half yards long. This oblong shape has a satin lining of the same measurement, with the ends closely drawn up by several rows of shirring and finished with a heavy black silk tassel.

A delightfully shimmering and iridescent effect is produced by several layers of chiffon of different tones, together, such as gold, delicate blue, and perhaps a pea green. With a border of ermine or swans-down it is irresistible.

For the scarf intended for warmth, it is better to have an interlining of flannel or a similar fabric, being careful that whatever is used for this purpose is soft and pliant.

If one tires of the straight scarf it can be draped in the back very gracefully by shirring the edges together in the center for a short distance, just enough for it to hang to or a little below the waist. This is easily done with satin mesaline or liberty, which are very soft, and the fur edge should be carried along the shirring.

The scarf of velvet and fur, PICTORIAL REVIEW PATTERN No. 373 is shaped quite differently, having a deep point in the back, the front sloping away into long pointed ends. The center section of velvet is inserted; it does not extend under the fur. Of course, any combination of fur, velvet or satin may be used, and the large barrel muff that accompanies it may have a wide strip of the contrasting material in the center if preferred. This scarf is also three yards long but the quantity of fur cannot be given as skins vary in size.

Each of the two sets illustrated consists of a scarf and muff, and the price for each set, including cutting and construction guides is 10 cents. They are made in one size only.

MRS. HEINZE

Resists Former Husband's Plea to Be Relieved From Alimony.

THE HEINZES AGAIN IN THE LIMELIGHT

Dragged In By the First Husband of Mrs. H.

New York, Jan. 27.—Formal application for relief from the $100 a week alimony he is paying to his divorced wife, Bernice Golden Henderson, who recently became the wife of Fritz Augustus Heinze, has been made before Justice Gerard by Charles A. Henderson. Henderson objects to paying for the support and maintenance of another man's wife. The motion is opposed by Mrs. Henderson-Heinze's lawyers.

Mrs. Heinze has planned to make her second theatrical debut soon on a London stage. She is now in Mount Clemens, Mich., where she is undergoing a mud bath treatment for nervousness. Heinze has been living here in seclusion.

The opposition to Mr. Henderson's motion leads to rumors that the newlyweds are not happy. While Mrs. Henderson-Heinze's lawyers refused to discuss the case, it is said that Mrs. Heinze is not inclined to see herself separated from the $100 a week. It is also stated that Heinze is opposed to her resuming a stage career. Lillian Hobart French, once an associate of Ann O'Delia Diss Debar, sued Heinze for $25,000 soon after his engagement to Mrs. Henderson was announced. It is stated by friends that this cloud which hung over the Heinze-Henderson romance has never entirely disappeared from the Heinze's matrimonial horizon.

EDITOR'S SUICIDE

Sol P. Hathaway of the Indianapolis Independent Kills Himself.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—Sol P. Hathaway, eighty years old, editor of the Independent, a weekly newspaper, and one of the best known of the older residents of the city, shot and killed himself at his home at 3042 Kenwood avenue.

The suicide terminated a long illness, which is ascribed by members of the family as the cause for the action. He had been in ill health for two years, and had been confined to the house for several months, following an accident in the street, when he fell and broke a hip.

Students Being Vaccinated.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 27.—The Indiana normal school has been closed until Monday to permit the students to be vaccinated and the building fumigated as a special precaution against smallpox. A supposed case of chickenpox has been reported in the training school.

The senate has passed the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. Among the items in it is an increase of the salary of the secretary of the president from $6,000 to $10,000.

REFORMED BREAD TOO SUCCESSFUL

Old English Squire Deluged With Orders For Loaves.

BEREFT OF PEACE AND MIND.

Little Stone Mill Turned Out Whole Meal Loaf Like That Eaten Before Days of False Teeth and Indigestion, and Entire United Kingdom Wanted Samples.

Sir Oswald Mosley, master of Rolleston Hall, Burton-on-Trent, England, has found himself suddenly bereft of his wonted peace and his large estate overwhelmed with the clamorous importunities of the world.

Sir Oswald recently announced his intention to start a national bread reform. The newfangled methods of milling and the artificial non-nutritious white bread, according to the Rolleston squire, were ruining the teeth of people and undermining their health. He purposed, therefore, with his little stone mill and the aid of the baker of Rolleston village to produce a whole meal loaf of the saving perfection of English bread in the days prior to false teeth, indigestion and appendicitis.

Stream of Messenger Boys.

For the first day Sir Oswald confined his purpose to supplying sample loaves to the villagers about Rolleston Hall. Then, urged by outsiders, he consented to forward a sample loaf to any body in the country who sent three pence (3 cents). Scarcely had the announcement been made when telegraph boys began to stream to Rolleston Hall, and the next post brought the biggest mail ever seen on the estate.

Sir Oswald had a shooting party at his house and wished to go out a little, but this became impossible, and the guests were compelled to shoot alone, while the astounded squire was bottled up with a flood of telegrams and letters asking for whole meal bread baked in the old way.

Compelled to Cancel Offer.

After a few hours' struggle, during every moment of which they say the squire became more perplexed and distracted, he dispatched telegrams to the newspapers withdrawing his offer, saying that the little stone mill and the village baker already had more than they could do in five years.

Sir Oswald and a clerical staff are busy returning money to the great landowners who wished to start similar enterprises on their own estates and to health societies, millers, bakers, doctors and all sorts and conditions of men.

However, the master of Rolleston, who is one of the few really typical John Bulls left in the country, with sawed off top hat, mutton chop whiskers, broad face, short, thick body, knickers and top boots, hopes eventually to help others carry bread reform to success.

BISMARCK MEMOIRS HELD UP.

Volume Criticising Present Kaiser Secret Until His Death.

It is announced from Berlin that the third volume of Bismarck's memoirs will not be published during the present kaiser's lifetime. The first two volumes were published some years ago and contained many interesting revelations concerning political events of the period of Bismarck's official career and many side lights on the history of those times.

The third volume is known to contain an unfavorable account of the present kaiser, written in connection with the circumstances which led to Bismarck's dismissal from office in 1890, two years after William II's accession to the throne, when the Iron Chancellor conceived a fierce hostility toward the young, impetuous monarch.

Some uneasiness has been caused at the German court from time to time by rumors that Bismarck's heirs intended to publish this volume in the near future. The announcement now made is intended to banish such fears and make it clear that Bismarck's judgment on William II. will not be given to the world during the kaiser's reign.

SWISS HAVE ELASTIC ROADS.

Tar Coated Gravel Proves Inexpensive, Lasting and Noiseless.

An interesting experiment has been made with promising results at Zurich, Switzerland. Fine gravel, the grains averaging from one-twentieth to one-twelfth of an inch in diameter, the whole carefully freed from earthy substances, was coated in a revolving drum with tar. These pellets were then carefully dried and hardened and after eight or ten weeks were spread during dry weather in a thick layer upon a prepared roadbed and rolled.

The road thus formed is inexpensive, possesses a certain elasticity and is said to withstand well the effects of heavy traffic. The desirability of a slightly elastic road for saving wear and tear and suppressing noise is evident.

PEONAGE IS ALLEGED AND TRIAL IS NOW ON

Shocking Revelations Made In a Texas Case.

Austin, Tex., Jan. 27.—On trial in the federal court here are the first cases of alleged peonage ever tried in Texas. The defendants are William S. Houston, former constable; Joseph W. Woods, former justice of the peace, both of Somerville; Robert S. Newsome, foreman of the Koppe plantation near Somerville, and Harlan McLeod, overseer on the plantation.

The government alleges that many young white boys and negroes were captured by Houston and sent to the farm without trial and held in bondage. The white boy victims of the alleged peonage system are from many different parts of the country, one of them being from Windsor, Canada, and another from Los Angeles. In each instance they were passing Somerville on the train when they were picked up by Houston and sent into alleged bondage.

Ward M. Fuller of St. Joseph, Mo., aged nineteen, testified that he was on his way to Brownsville, Tex., two years ago, when Houston captured him and sent him to the Koppe farm. He was placed in a stockade with a lot of negro men and women and was whipped with a big leather strap at different times, negroes sitting upon his head and feet while the "bat" was applied to his bare back by McLeod and Newsome, he testified. He saw many other prisoners whipped while he was there. Frequently at night Newsome and McLeod would enter the stockade and whip the negroes until they were exhausted.

GARY SET BACK

Building Operations Suspended by Reason of Labor Strikes.

Gary, Ind., Jan. 27.—Six unions are now on strike here—the carpenters, roofers, lathers, one faction of the steam fitters, the sheet metal workers and the Collins-McNulty faction of the electrical workers' union—and it is feared old unions will be called out. As it is, more than $1,000,000 worth of new buildings are tied up and the starting of $2,000,000 worth of new work is checked. As a result, hundreds of men are out of work, contractors are idle, and the whole economic situation in Gary is affected.

Disorganized, Says Hale.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Senator Hale of Maine states that congress is in the most disorganized condition that he has ever witnessed in his long career in the senate, and says a crisis faces the Republican party.

CRYING FOR HELP.

Lots of it in Seymour But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys cry for help. Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed.

Not one so important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous.

There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble.

It is the kidney's cry for help. Heed it.

Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted.

Are just what overworked kidneys need.

They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work; never fail to cure any case of kidney disease.

Read the proof from a Seymour citizen.

A. P. Williams, 217 S. Broadway St., Seymour, Ind., says: "I suffered intensely from kidney and bladder complaint and was unable to get permanent relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy restored my kidneys to a normal condition and improved my health wonderfully."

Rhinoceroses With Two Horns.

Several species of rhinoceroses, now extinct and only found in a fossil state, used to exist which had no horns at all. The name, meaning as it does "horned nose," is rather a misnomer in their case. Several kinds of rhinoceroses in Africa have two horns, one behind the other, but the extinct rhinoceros, known as the diceratherium, had a pair of horns on its nose side by side.

Escaped with His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it sure enough. I tried everything I could hear of for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." It's positively guaranteed for coughs, colds and all bronchial affections. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

THE PRESIDENT URGES TREATY

Earnestly Hopes for Reciprocal Arrangements With Canada.

SENDS MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

In Urging the Enactment Into Law of the Proposed Trade Agreement Between the Dominion and This Country, Mr. Taft Sets Out Reasons Why the Ties Which Unite Neighbors
 Should Be Knit More Closely.

Washington, Jan. 27.—President Taft sent a message to the senate conveying the Canadian reciprocity agreement, which was read, and at its conclusion the message and agreement were referred to the finance committee.

"The guiding motive in seeking adjustment of trade relations between two countries so situated geographically should be to give play to productive forces as far as practicable, regardless of political boundaries," says the president's message. "While equivalency should be sought in an arrangement of this character, an exact balance of financial gain is neither imperative nor attainable. No yardstick can measure the benefit to the two peoples of this free commercial intercourse, and no trade agreement should be judged wholly by custom house figures.

"We have so increased in population and in our consumption of food products and the other necessities of life, hitherto supplied largely from our own country, that unless we materially increase our production we can see before us a change in our economic position from that of a country selling to the world food and natural products of the farm and forest, to one consuming and importing them. Excluding cotton, which is exceptional, a radical change is already shown in our exports in the falling off in the amount of our agricultural products sold abroad and a corresponding marked increase in our manufactures exported.

"A far-sighted policy requires that if we can enlarge our supply of natural resources and especially of food products and the necessities of life, without substantial injury to any of our producing and manufacturing classes, we should take steps to do so now.

"The Dominion has greatly prospered.
 It has an active, aggressive and important people. They are coming to the parting of the ways. They must soon decide whether they are to regard themselves as isolated permanently from our markets by a perpetual wall or whether we are to be commercial friends. If we give them reason to take the former view, can we complain if they adopt methods denying access to certain of their natural resources except upon conditions quite unfavorable to us. Another notable instance of such a possibility may be seen in the conditions surrounding the supply of pulp wood and the manufacture of print paper for which we have made a conditional provision in the agreement, believed to be equitable.
 Should we not now therefore, before their policy has become too crystallized and fixed for change, meet them in a spirit of real concession, facilitate commerce between the two countries, thus increasing the natural resources available to our people?

"The geographical proximity, the closer relation of blood, common sympathies and identical moral and social ideas furnish real and striking reasons why this agreement ought to be viewed from a high plane. Since becoming a nation Canada has been our good neighbor. She has cost us nothing in the way of preparations for defense against her possible assault, and she never will. She has sought to agree with us quickly when differences have disturbed our relations. She shares with us common traditions and aspirations. I feel I have correctly interpreted the wish of the American people by expressing in the arrangement now submitted to congress for its approval their desire for a more intimate and cordial relationship with Canada.
 I therefore earnestly hope that the measure will be promptly enacted into law."

REPUBLICAN EDITORS IN BUSINESS SESSION

State Association Holds Meeting At Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—The regular midwinter session of the Indiana Republican Editorial association is being held today in the palm room of the Claypool hotel. There is a large attendance of the members, and much interest is being manifested in the various papers prepared for the occasion.

"The Commission Form of City Government" was the subject of a prepared address presented by Rudolph G. Leeds of the Indianapolis Sun, the discussion of which was led by E. C.
 Toner of Anderson and R. A. Brown of Frankfort.

Will B. Maddock of Bloomfield presented a paper on the subject of "Understandable Prices for Advertising," and Jesse Pierce of Clinton gave the editors a talk on "What the Junior Lintotype Can Do." Julian Hogate of Danville leading in the discussion of this topic. Under the Head of "Shop Talk" there was a general discussion and exchange of ideas which preceded the reports of committees. The election of officers for the ensuing year will conclude the day's program.

As an opener to today's business meeting, the editors and their wives enjoyed a social session and banquet last night which was attended by about a hundred, quite a number of the members of the legislature being present.

Among those who responded to toasts were former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, former Attor-

 tral committee, and James P. Goodrich, former chairman.

 to Agree on Verdict.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 27.—Unable to agree on a verdict, the jury in the case of Mrs. Laura F. Schenk, tried on a charge of poisoning her husband, John O. Schenk, was discharged. The case will now be redocketed and re-tried at the next term of court unless a continuance is asked. As soon as the jury was discharged it was announced that they had stood eleven for acquittal and one for conviction on almost every ballot taken.

Mrs. Schenk was admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000 several weeks ago, but now that the jury has disagreed
 her attorneys will ask the court to reduce the amount of bail by half. If the reduction is granted bail will be furnished and she will be released from jail soon.

NOW READY FOR THE GOVERNOR

Option Repeal Bill Passes the House 60 to 39.

WAS PUT THROUGH IN A HURRY

Recognizing the Futility of Opposition,
 the Minority Confined Their Protests to Brief Speeches, While the Majority, Sure of Their Position, Didn't Recognize the Need of Extended Argument on the Measure.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—By a vote of 60 to 39 the Proctor bill amending the local option law by reducing the unit of option to the township and city instead of the county passed the house of representatives late yesterday afternoon. This result was accomplished with little oratorical flourish, the minority recognizing the futility of protest, while the majority was calmly conscious of the ability to put through this important platform measure. At that, however, it was not a strictly party vote, the following Democrats voting against it: Merriman, Clere and Higgins, while Greiger, Van Horn, Grimmer and Vidler, Republicans, voted for it.

State Hospital Proposed.

Earlier in the session about a score of minor bills came up for second reading in the house and were sent to en-grossment. The monotony was broken when a message from the governor was announced. It was the recommendation of an offer made by Dr. Robert W. Long and wife to endow the city with $200,000 worth of property to establish a state hospital in connection with the Indiana university school of medicine. The reading was received with applause, and the message was referred to the ways and means committee, with directions to report by bill or otherwise. The governor urged that the gift be accepted. Transmitted with the governor's message was a letter of agreement signed by Dr.
 and Mrs. Long, setting out the terms of the proposed gift to the university.
 The conditions of the endowment were imposed by the donors. One of them is that Dr. Long is to be chairman of the committee in charge of the construction of the hospital building and of the committee in charge of the disposal of the real estate. Dr. Long is a practitioner of many years' residence in this city.

A Stormy Caucus.

After being in a stormy caucus for two hours, the Democratic members of the house parted, with a divided opinion as to the merits of the Keegan child labor bill, but not, however, until the bill had been adopted, section by section, without change, and not until a determined effort had been made to have it appear as the platform measure on the subject. This latter situation it was said by supporters of the bill, was brought about. Others, while admitting the adoption of the bill as a platform measure, declared their intention of bolting the caucus, while others, confused by the numerous viva voce votes and by the wrangles in the caucus, say the whole question is exactly as it was when Masselink, chairman of the house committee on labor, brought up three reports, and then,
 after a conference with Speaker Veneman and Keegan, withdrew the reports.

From the attitude the majority members of the house have taken, it is apparent there will be some vitriolic speeches when the bill is again brought up and the reports of committees are called for.

County and Township Business.

The house committee on county and township business, which is considering the township trustees and township assessors' bill for increasing salaries and prescribing regulations for the respective offices, expects to hold at least one more meeting before making a report. The trustees have consented to sharp decreases in the salaries asked, and Representative Foor, who introduced the measure, says he believes a satisfactory agreement will be reached and the bill will be reported in with amendments which will prove satisfactory. The salary provision is on a scale based on township population.

The Hord claim, which has been before the Indiana legislature for years, will be presented again this session. William B. Hord of New York is in Indianapolis to push the claim, and bills will probably be introduced soon in both houses for its payment. Hord contends that the state is indebted to him in the sum of $63,585 for services rendered to the state in the successful prosecution and collection of its war loan refund claim against the United States, amounting to $635,859.20.

To Regulate Weights.

At the suggestion of Representative Spencer, who has introduced a bill providing for the regulation of weights and measures, R. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner, will draft a bill to regulate net weights and measures for the control of package food goods. The request was made in committee meeting when Mr. Barnard was urging the passage of the Spencer bill. The net weight evil is said to be one of the most glaring in the disposal of foodstuffs in the state.
